Attachment: Replacement Sheet

Remarks

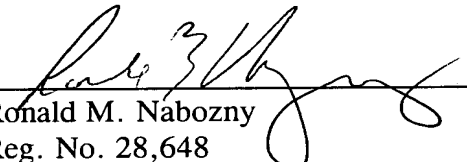

Amendment to the written description and the drawing figures are made to correct obvious errors and avoid duplicative use of reference numerals. These amendments clarify the disclosure and do not add new matter to the application. Rather, they render the written description consistent with the drawing figures and clarify the disclosure. In addition, they do not require further search or consideration by the Examiner, and they do not affect the claims previously examined and allowed by the Examiner.

These amendments are necessary to place the application in better condition for grant.

In view of the foregoing, entry of the amendment is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Sameer Bhargava et al.
